"YOU'RE Stepping on My Cloak and Dagger," another humorous nonfiction entry based on personal experience, has just been taken under option for pictures. Sid Kiwitt, who is associated with Seven Arts, expects to make this through his own independent PDK Productions.

Blossom Kahn, of Curtis Brown, negotiated on behalf of the author Roger Hall, whose account of his adventures and misadventures in the O.S.S. was published back in 1957 by Norton. Hall will develop the script.
